

Functional Clay Art Class Fall 2018

This class uses Air Dry Clay, which doesn't need to be fired in a kiln - it literally air dries. Air Dry Clay is clean, easy to use, and can be used to create a huge variety of artworks limited only by the artist's creativity and imagination - the possibilities are endless!

This unique class helps your child to:

- improve eye-hand coordination
- develop patience and concentration
- improve powers of observation
- enhance creativity and imagination
- have lots of FUN!

Grade: K~ 4th grade (6 years old and above)

Thanks for registering.

* All children taking clay art class, whether they are in extended care or not, should sign in at extended care immediately after school. The clay art teacher will pick them up at extended care, and return them there after clay art class is over, and parents will pick them up there. There is no charge for this service unless children are not picked up within 15 minutes after the end of the clay art class. This procedure is for the safety of the children. Please let anyone who might be picking up your student know that they must go to the daycare to sign the release board.
