

What do you like most about Milpitas Christian School?

Parents of MCS students answered this question in recent surveys:

“The well-managed program and curriculum. Faculty is topnotch and continually adjusts the curriculum, based on current teaching methodologies.”

“I really appreciate the math and science curriculum in the MCS middle school; it prepares the students to do quite well in high school. The computer technology classes are another highlight.”

“MCS is excellent in academics, paying attention to students, and communicating well with parents. It's the best private Christian school in 20+ years.”

“Academic rigor with a good balance of programs (art, science, music, philosophy, community service, character building, etc.)”

“Along with its high quality academic program I like very much that the school offers one-on-one tutoring by qualified instructors for students that need the help. It also has an excellent daycare program.”

“MCS is dedicated and committed to my child's success. The school provides academic excellence, as well as instilling good moral values, and is always ready to help.”

“Teachers and staff are very professional and they care about the children. MCS guides children toward good manners and morality.”

“Faculty and staff go out of their way to help nurture and encourage our children.”

“The cheerful, responsive, helpful, caring, and dedicated staff, from the parking people, the library, afterschool staff, and of course, the teachers and administrators. The overall caring, supportive, committed school climate = we parents know the school is doing 110% to ensure our children succeed. The academics AS WELL AS the many, many extra activities and classes that are offered that help build well-rounded, bright, respectful children.”

“The safe and nurturing Christian environment.”

“The education and moral values our child comes home with. We have had the best teachers for our child. We are so grateful.”

“My son has a fun, safe atmosphere to learn in. As a 2 ½ year old he has grown in the past 6 months from what he has learned in preschool.”

“The caring, warm relationships built with teachers and students. The strong sense of community.”

“The environment is very caring and nurturing. In the 6 years that I have been there, never has there been a day when I have worried about my child. I can trust the school very much. All of the staff are very helpful and caring. I love this school and would highly recommend it.”

“I like the community. The school faculty and staff are very friendly and willing to help parents and students.”

“The environment that they are in is safe, caring, and positive. The communication that is provided to the parents via email is excellent. I feel that I can stay on top of the activities, field trips, snacks, and other announcements.”
